

Please keep the phone lines open for important phone calls and not let advertisers use it as a means to sell us into things we do not want or care about. Keep the law as is in respect to privacy in our homes.